Brick and shingle Tudor-inspired Colonial located in an elegant neighborhood on upper Goden. A graceful floor plan with a proper vestibule and separate foyer flanked by double French doors that open into the living room on one side and a formal dining room on the other. Classic architectural details are in full-play with beamed ceilings, wood burning fireplace, hardwood floors, front-to-back living room, period millwork and a large sunroom. Also, direct-entry 2-car garage, gas heating, central air-conditioning and newer windows. A beautifully-sited property allowing ample sun and seasonal views of Boston along with Fresh Pond vistas. Walking distance to all 3 schools.
